

CACFP Public Release – Innovative Network of Knowledge

Name of Institution: Innovative Network of Knowledge

Program Year: 2025-2026

The above-named institution is participating in the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP). Meals will be made available to all enrolled participants at no separate charge, and the same meals will be made available to all participants regardless of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), age, or disability.

CACFP reimburses centers and day care homes for serving nutritious meals and snacks to eligible children and adults. Eligibility for free and reduced-price meals is based on income guidelines published annually by the USDA.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form (AD-3027), found online at: <https://www.usda.gov/oascr/how-to-file-a-program-discrimination-complaint>, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:
